A weeks ago, A. E. Hannegan, Navy quarter back, broke his shoulder. But Saturday, the injured shoulder in a brace. Hannegan played at his regular position throughout most of the Navy's bitter 21 to 21 the with the Army at Soldiers' field, Chicago, And despite the fact that his right arm was practically usoless, he played a brilliant game. Coach Bill Ingram of the Navy believes the injury is responsible for Hannegan's failure to tackle Cagle and Wilson when the Army backs broke loose for touchdowns on long runs.

The only chance that baseball has "to get a toe-hold on the western world" is through Treland, in the opinion of Stanley (Bucky) Harris, manager of the Washington baseball team. Harris returned yesterday with his wife from a honeymoon abroad. Mrs.

DOOR Jack Curley is in the dumps Jack, who had a hand in the importation of Georges Carpentier for the "battle of the century," and who has spent the last several years importing "champion" wrestlers from Europe, broke into the fighter importing game again when he induced the Spaniard, Paolina, to come to our shores and get some of our easy money-for himself and for Mr. Curley. But Jack made one mistake. He did not wait until his woodchopping fighter reached New York to arrange his scheduler Curley had the Senor's program all mapped out when he arrived. This program called for Raolino to make his American debut opposed to Monte Munn, the Nebraska legislator. Unfortunately-for Curley -the Spaniard was accompanied by a representative who apparently can read our language and has been reading of Munn's unpleasant habit of knocking out sundry European heavyweights, and the representative promptly called a halt to his compadre meeting Mr. Munn. Now it is up to Curley to fix up some easier picking for the Spaniard to open with, or close his latest meal ticket.

RIDAY night at Chicago. Mickey Walker, former welterweight champion, will make an effort to take the middleweight crown from the dusky brow of "Tiger" Flowers, and many wise followers of the fight game are taying their coin that the Jersey boy will succeed. Flowers' wins over Harry Greb have lost some of their impressiveness since it has become known that Harry had but one eye when he met the colored boy. An argument for Walker is the fact that making the welterweight limit was always an odious task, and no doubt weakened the then champion and sapped some of his effectiveness. He will be under no such handicap at the middleweight

I TOOK P. A. for better or worse . . . and found it better! Better than anything I had ever smoked. That's my story and I'm going to stick to it. When sirenbrands try to flirt, I just give them the icy stare. I know what I like in a pipe, and what I like is Prince Albert!

The instant you break the seal on the Ridy red tin and get that wonderful fragrance of real tobacco, you know you are in for a pipe-treat. Your mouth fairly waters for a taste of tobacco that smells as good as that. Then you load up and light up—ah! . . .

Cool. Sweet. Fragrant. Old words, I'll admit, but you get a brand-new idea of how much they can mean in a pipebowl packed with P. A. Maybe you've always thought such pipe-pleasure was "just around the corner." Try a load of Prince Albert and turn that corner!

Get a half-nelson on the pipe-joy that'a due you. Before you do another thing, buy a tin of Prince Albert and tuck a neat wad into your pipe. Notice how mild it is, yet how delightfully full-bodied. Here's a smoke that you can pal around with, morning to midnight.

-no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. Is sold everywhere in tidy red sins, found and half-pound in humawith spange invisioner tap. And always rub every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert Fracess.
